What is Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance?

Connect | Advance | Lead

The Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance, formerly known as the American Society of Women Accountants (ASWA), is a professional organization whose purpose is to advance the interests of women in all fields of accounting and finance.

Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance was formed in 1938 to increase the opportunities for women in all fields of accounting and finance. After 75 years of enabling women to reach their full potential, we continue to offer quality conferences and valuable CPE. Members of the Accounting and Financial Women's Alliance and their companies benefit from practical resources and programs that strengthen their professional growth. Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance members tap into an extensive knowledge base of accounting and finance professionals with technical expertise to provide solutions for the most complex issues. The majority of our members have attained professional certifications such as CPA, CMA, CIA, and CFP®.

The mission of Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance is to enable women in all accounting and related fields to achieve their full personal, professional and economic potential and to contribute to the future development of their profession.
